

Membership Council Work Plan & Charges

Chair: Steve Olson

Co-Chairs: Nirmal Tejwani, Chad Coles

Membership Committee, Kyle Jeray, kjeray@ghs.org

Current Charges & Activities

Active Membership Growth

Expansion of Clinical Members

Current Year Fellows

Expansion of Advanced Practice Professionals

Expansion of International

Develop demographics tracking for OTA Members. (areas of clinical and other specialty).

Health Policy, Doug Lundy, lundydw@resurgens.com

Current Charges & Activities

Orthopaedic PAC poster at the Annual Meeting

Author Health Policy Update in each of the Newsletters

Interface with OTA COT Chair in coordination of policy initiatives

Development of an OTA HP Fellowship

Provide the OTA Membership with relevant HP updates and education via the OTA Annual Meeting, webinars, etc.

OTA to use AJRR registry for QCDR. Development of measures to be covered by the EBQVS Committee.

Development of Risk Adjustment in Quality Measures

Military Committee, Daniel Stinner, daniel.stinner@gmail.com

Maintain a strong military presence in the OTA

Be the interface between the OTA and the U.S. Military for humanitarian missions and disaster response.

Distinguished Visiting Surgeon Program at Landstuhl Regional Medical Center

Create a current listing of active duty military Orthopaedist

Public Relations, Mark Lee - marlee@ucdavis.edu

Current Charges & Activities

Manage and collaborate with Public Relations subcommittees: Newsletter, Website, YOC, Member Services (Member Benefits/Playground Build), Media Relations (PSA/Patient Stories/Media Training), and Social Media

Review value and opportunities for OTA support of AAOS (and other) public service announcements.

Publish the OTA Newsletter.

Integrate Social Media into Association Activities and marketing / PR plan

Identify opportunities to educate the public and increase awareness of the burden of musculoskeletal trauma / disease and the role of orthopaedic trauma surgeons

Collaborate with OTA committees to publicize accomplishments and new initiatives internally to members.

OTA Annual Meeting

Gain feedback on new website

Practice Management, Paul Appleton, pappleto@bidmc.harvard.edu

Current Charges & Activities

1. Appoint two of its members to be liaison's to the AAOS coding committee and the CPT panel and RUC process.

2. Identify new CPT codes to ensure that these choices will provide member benefit.

3. Participate in the RUC process to identify undervalued trauma codes and work with the AAOS to successfully present these to the RUC on a recurring cycle.

4. Develop educational programming to increase member knowledge about accurate coding of trauma procedures.

5. Identify additional ways to advance knowledge and education about the current management of orthopaedic trauma practice.

International Relations - Peter Giannoudis - pgiannoudi@aol.com

Current Charges & Activities

1. Identify advances in Orthopaedic Trauma practices outside of North America and incorporate them into our Educational efforts (a) Collaborate with Program Committee in bringing International advances to the Annual Meeting. (b) Procure International technique video for digital library (c) Identify and educate regarding International best practices (d) Review and update the International Forum session

2. Increase membership from expert traumatologists outside of North America (a) Identify liaisons from select countries or societies (b) Have OTA participate in external International programs (c) International member solicitation (d) Identify Guest Nation or Society

3. Facilitate International partnership through Academic exchanges (a) Collaboration with Education with digital education (b) Promote OTA participation in external International meetings (c) Offer OTA programs to be delivered by OTA members internationally

Humanitarian Committee - Rick Coughlin - richard.coughlin@ucsf.edu

Current Charges & Activities

1. Promote international humanitarian efforts in Orthopaedic Trauma (a) Collaborate with PR Committee for awareness (b) Recruitment of providers (c) Bringing programs and individuals together

2. Vet international educational and service opportunities for OTA support or endorsement

3. Work within existing infrastructure to assure cost effectiveness