

Lisa K. Cannada, MD

“The mentoring relationships are enriching and it involves more than just cases and training advice. I live and lead by the motto to make the path better for those that follow and make sure every opportunity to invest in the growth of others and see them succeed. Remember, our career has an expiration date but the contributions you make to others does not!”